

There are very few remaining brick barns in Kent County. One located at Borton Hall, one at Shephard's Delight and one at Nancy's Choice.

This barn is five bays long and three stories high. It is built into the side of a hill so that the north side is only two full stories and the south is three full stories. It is laid in common bond throughout and has batten shutters and doors. Apparently the batten shutters have permanent louvers inside. The ground level of the barn has three doors which were used for cattle.
